The screenshot displays the CSiBridge v22.1.0 software interface. The main window shows a 3D model of a curved bridge structure. Overlaid on the interface are three dialog boxes:

- About CSiBridge: Displays software details including Version 22.1.0, Build 1639, and copyright information for Computers and Structures, Inc.
- License for Computers and Structures, Inc.: Shows license information for CSiBRADR, including License Version 22, Type Standalone, and 360 days left on license.
- Analysis Complete - Example 5-003c: Shows analysis results for Run 1, including the number of negative eigenvalues (0), linear static cases (19:39:16), and analysis completion status.

At the bottom of the interface, there is a status bar with the text "Right Click on any joint for displacement values" and a "Start Animation" button.
